- Guests are permitted to bring in decorations and balloons for the event. Any decorations that will be taped onto the wall or any surfaces must be done with painters tape. For the safety of the cats, we ask that items containing ribbon or strings be closely monitored and removed at the conclusion of the rental. Decorations may be hung up in the program room only and are not permitted in the cat visitation area.
- Although Tiny Lions does our best to be sure we have many social cats available to visit with, we cannot guarantee the number of animals that will be within the building as well as the amount of interaction the guests will have with the cats.
- Our staff will review animal handling expectations and policies with all guests. Guests are expected to display safe, appropriate and respectful behavior towards the staff, volunteers, guests and animals. Tiny Lions reserves the right to deny participation to any guest who exhibits unsafe behavior with staff, party guests or animals at any time. Refunds will not be issued if a guest(s) is asked to leave the adoption center.
- Live animals may not be brought to the party, including as favors. This includes, but is not limited to dogs, cats, hermit crabs, fish and hamsters. If a service animal accompanies a guest, some program changes may be made. Please refrain from bringing any open catnip, treats or cat food.
